MONDAY

Midland Community Theatre is offering 4-week online classes through ZOOM starting on Feb. 8th. If there is enough demand, a Wednesday class will be opened up as well.

Theatre and Acting

Facilitator: Midland Community Theatre

Target Ages: Group 1) 8-9 year olds; and Group 2) 10-12 year olds

Cost: $20 per student. Commit to the four-week class. (This cost is over 70% off our regular online Theatre School class price at MCT and is intended as an introductory offer)

Minimum/Maximum enrollment per class: 6-8 students

Class Description: This introductory theatre arts class provided by Midland Community Theatre Education Department will focus on basic theatre and acting skills such as pantomime, storytelling, and acting games. Novice as well as veteran actors can enjoy these activities as they collaborate with their peers. Our goal beyond developing skills in acting is to help students explore their social interaction, leadership skills and creativity - tools that assist students in all areas of education and life.

NOTES: All students still have the option to participate in regularly scheduled classes at MCT, which meet later in the day. MCT Theatre School classes meet for K-6 grade meet from 4:15 to 5:15 pm one day a week (day determined by age/grade level). Since there is no offering here for older students, we recommend Centerstage class for 7-12 graders which meets on Mondays from 5:30 to 7:00 beginning February 1st.

TUESDAY

To minimize the risk of spreading infectious diseases, all people on campus five years old and above will be required to wear masks while inside.

Take II Program

Facilitators: Janeen Guynn, Kristy Rudel, Shannon Lawrence, Heather Friesenhahn

Target Ages: 5-17

Cost: $10/learner

Class Description: The Take II program will meet on campus from 9:40-2:40 on Tuesdays. The program includes two morning sessions, lunch, Real Recess, and Teen/Tween Meetup. Each week when you arrive you will sign up for your programs for the day. Classes will include science experiments, anatomy, Lego club, building, art, and more

WEDNESDAY - ONLINE

Online classes will be offered on Zoom. They will each last 30 minutes and just like in person classes will only be available at the time they are being offered.

Reader's Theatre

Facilitator: DeeDee Putzel

Target Ages: Must be able to read

Cost: Free

Class Description: Learner's will perform various plays by offering dramatic readings. Scripts will be sent by e-mail, so it is important that families are willing to check e-mail consistently.

Play with your Food

Facilitator: Janeen Guynn

Target Ages: Beginning cooks

Cost: Free

Class Description: In this class we will create a dish that can accompany lunch. Our dishes will be prepared or baked, but not cooked. The main focus of this class, other than having a good time, will be on cleaning, preparing, and cutting foods. Think adorable Pinterest fruit/vegetable sides or simple wholesome baked goods. Ingredient lists will be sent at least 1 week in advance.

NOTES: We will be using knives a lot and the oven, so parent supervision is recommended.

WEDNESDAY - OUTDOOR CLASSES

Outdoor classes will be held at Hogan Park/Sibley Nature Center and will all occur simultaneously. Because they will be outside, it is important to make sure learners have the proper clothing and protective equipment so they can have a good time. Masks will be optional outside.

Games

Facilitator: Shannon Lawrence

Target Ages: 5-13

Cost: $5/learner

Class Description: We will play a variety of outdoor games to get our bodies moving.

Outdoor Adventures

Facilitator: Janeen Guynn

Target Ages: 5-13

Cost: $5/learner

Class Description: Join us as we go on scavenger hunts, complete an orienteering course, and learn how to lay trails! Each week will be something new as we play outside.

Teen/Tween Fun Time

Facilitator: DeeDee Putzel

Target Ages: 12-17

Cost: $5/learner

Class Description: Each week we'll complete a fun project or activity and spend time hanging out with our friends.

Open Skies & Fresh Air

Hosted by: Leadership team

Target Ages: All ages welcome!

Cost: Free

Class Description: This is like a weekly park meetup. We'll meet by the playground at Hogan Park for socializing and play.
